Gun Dealing by Ian Patrick

If I compare Gun Dealing (The Ryder Quartet Book 2) with other books in the genre I must say that the fiction is classic and scene imagery about places and characters are solid. As a reader I was able to imagine well the places and I felt that I am exactly in that place due to strong wordings and description.

Ian Patrick Books - Fiction from the real world

Ian Patrick's fourth Ryder book, "Death Dealing", is another "tour de force", force being the operative word! While Ryder dallies in England on an almost pointless academic policing cross-disciplinary study tour, our devil driven villain teams up with serial murderer, torturer and rapist, breaks out of jail and starts out on a new criminal enterprise.
