Man, the State, and War - Wikipedia

In this thoughtful inquiry into the views of classical political theory on the nature and causes of war, Professor Waltz follows three principal themes or images: war as a consequence of the nature and behavior of man, as an outcome of their internal organization of states, and as a product of international anarchy.,

foolishly did not heed
such warnings. Waltz uses three lenses to understand why war
occurs: the individual,
the state, and the
international arena.
