Miracles of the Namiya General Store - Wikipedia

The Miracles of the Namiya General Store is a Japanese novel that I can heartily recommend to anyone and everyone. You don't need any sort of pre-existing cultural knowledge to grasp this one. The simple writing style is approachable for most ages (though this is adult fiction) and the story's focal points are wonderfully effective and meaningful on a universal level.

The Miracles of the Namiya General Store by Keigo Higashino

This Miracles of the Namiya General Store does have some fantasy which is the kind I wish could be true. No monsters or other worlds involved. Just people who could be real and time that doesn't follow a straight line. At first, the stories in this book don't seem to be connected, but gradually we start learning that these stories aren't random.
