Moominpappa and Moominmamma are often seen as portraits of Jansson's parents Viktor Jansson and Signe Hammarsten-Jansson. Most of Jansson's characters are on the verge of melancholy, such as the always formal Hemulen, or the strange Hattifatteners, who travel in concerted, ominous groups.

Moomins - Wikipedia

The first Moomin book is a very short read, full of short encounters with imaginative creatures that should appeal to very young children. For a grown-up, it's a bit boring, not that captivating, and the illustrations are messy, though they do give a hint at the scale and the fantasia of the Moomin world, more to be developed in the subsequent, "main" Moomin stories.
